

Code of Ethics for Chapters Of the Society of Decorative Painters

As members of a chapter of the Society of Decorative Painters, our purpose, in common with that of the society, is the promotion of decorative painting. To this end we pledge ourselves to support the goals and purposes of the chapter of the Society:

- To keep the lines of communication open with fellow chapter and Society members, respecting one another and following appropriate lines of communication.
- To have a positive and open attitude, listening to fellow members' opinions.
- To remember the importance of an active membership, contributing our time and talents.
- To maintain high standards of integrity and honesty.
- To respect the rights of each member individually, and the right of the majority to govern; therefore supporting the decision of the majority, regardless of how we personally voted.
- To support and cooperate with leaders who serve the chapter, respecting the time and dedicated service of past leaders, and when completing our terms as officers, relinquishing our responsibilities cheerfully to support new leaders.
- To promote a friendly chapter environment where chapter members motivate and inspire one another, and where differences of opinion are accepted without a need to continue to discuss past differences.
- To accept and respect the varied reasons members have for chapter membership and the varied skill levels they represent.
- To remember Chapters are nonprofit organizations and their goal is to promote decorative painting for everyone.
- To realize the conduct and activities of the chapter and its members reflect on the entire Society of which the chapter is a part.

As members of the chapter and of the Society, we acknowledge this code of ethics as an expression of our determination to maintain high professional standards. It is only the conscience of the individual who subscribes to this code that can guarantee its effectiveness.
